

Rainbows United is the region's leading center for early childhood education and care, featuring the latest practices in Pre-K learning for children of all abilities, and the most advanced therapies for children with developmental delays and disabilities. Rainbows United is a family-friendly organization, tailoring services to support the health and unique needs of each child. Rainbows United is a not-for-profit organization, supported by state, federal and private grants; through collaborative relationships with other organizations; and by the generosity of business leaders and caring individuals. No family is turned away because of their inability to pay for services.

For more information about the many services and programs offered by Rainbows United, Inc., please visit us online, or call us today.
